THE RĀTIBUL ḤADDĀD

Messenger (Muḥammad) believes in what has been revealed to him from his Lord, and (so do) the believers. They all believe in His Angels, His Books and His Messengers. They say: "We do not differentiate between any of His Messengers. We hear and we obey. We ask You for forgiveness our Lord, and to You will we all return.3/4 Allāh will not burden any soul with more than what it can bear. It shall be compensated for whatever good it has done, and it will be punished for whatever evil it has done. (Pray:) "Our Lord! Do not take us to task if we forget or make a mistake. Our Lord, do not place on us a burden like that which you have placed on those before us! Our Lord, do not place on us a burden that we do not have the strength to bear! Pardon us, and grant us forgiveness; and have Mercy on us. You are our Protector; so grant us victory over the disbelieving people." 3/4 [Sūrah Al-Baqarah (2), Verses 284-286]

Allāh! There is no god, but Him; the Ever-Living, the Self Subsisting, the Eternal One. Neither slumber nor sleep can overtake Him. To Him belongs whatsoever is in the Heavens and whatsoever is on the earth. Who is there that can intercede in His Presence, except by His permission? He Knows what will happen to them (His creatures) in this world, and what will happen to them in the Hereafter; nor shall they comprehend anything at all of His Knowledge except as He Wills. His Throne extends over the Heavens and the earth, and guarding and preserving it, does not exhaust Him, for He is the Exalted, the All-Mighty.2 [Sūrah Al-Baqarah (2), Verse 255]
